Resignation of Dr. Peter Oliver

The Mark Twain Health Care District (MTHCD) announced today that Dr. Peter Oliver has resigned his position on the MTHCD Board. This resignation is effective immediately and is received with regret.

Dr. Oliver has served the Calaveras Community extremely well during his 5 years on the MTHCD Board. Dr. Oliver served on the Lease Review Committee and most recently served as Board President.

Dr. Oliver is going to continue providing excellent care to patients in this community. Dr. Oliver also noted he has personal and professional obligations that preclude his full participation in MTHCD Board matters.

Dr. Oliver's contributions to the MTHCD Board includes significant insight to patient care concerns and his ongoing promotion of access to care.

Dr. Oliver will be greatly missed and we thank him profusely for his dedication.

Lin Reed, MBA, OTR/L
Acting Board President
